Amendment to Article 8 of the International Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Racial Discrimination, adopted at the Fourteenth Meeting of the States Parties to the Convention on 15th January 1992

(Not yet in force- see paragraph 4 of the Decision of the State Parties)

Date of Acceptance
by The Bahamas: 31st March 1994 (accession)

Depositary: Secretary General of the United Nations

¹¹ Declaration: "Firstly the Government of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas wishes to State its understanding of Article 4 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. It interprets Article 4 as requiring a party to the Convention to adopt further legislative measures in the fields covered by sub paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of that article only in so far as it may consider with due regard to the principles embodied in the Universal Declaration set out in Article 5 of the Convention, in particular to freedom of opinion and expression and the right of freedom of peaceful assembly and association that some legislative addition to, or variation of existing law and practice in these fields is necessary for the attainment of the ends specified in article 4. Lastly the Constitution of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas entrenches and guarantees to every person in The Commonwealth of The Bahamas the fundamental rights and freedoms irrespective of his race or place of origin. The Constitution prescribes judicial process to be observed in the event of the violation of any of these rights whether by the State or by a private individual. Acceptance of this Convention by the Commonwealth of The Bahamas does not imply the acceptance of obligations beyond the constitutional limits nor the acceptance of any obligations to introduce judicial process beyond these prescribed under the Constitution.

This document is property of the Government of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas and is for reference purposes only. This list is not definitive, it represents a work in progress. It would be appreciated if any information on amendments, additions or deletions to this list is communicated in writing addressed to the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women Adopted by the General Assembly of the U.N. on 18th December 1979¹⁴

¹² Declaration – “The Government of The Bahamas interprets non-discrimination as to national origin as not necessarily implying an obligation on States automatically to guarantee to foreigners the same rights as to their nationals. This term should be understood to refer to the elimination of any arbitrary behaviour but not of differences in treatment based on objective and reasonable considerations, in conformity with principles prevailing in democratic societies”

¹³ Reservation – “The Government of The Bahamas recognizes and accepts the principle of compensation for wrongful imprisonment contained in paragraph 6 of article 14, but the problems of implementation are such that the right not to apply that principle is presently reserved”
